WINTER EATING RUINS STOMACHS.

"Now is the Time You Need Mi-o-na," Says Penny.

Think for a moment of the extra strain you put up in the stomach in the winter. The hearty food, the late suppers and the lack of exercise and outdoor life all weaken and strain the stomach, laying the foundation for poor health and suffering. Chronic stomach troubles, nervous irritability and serious bowel and kidney diseases have often dated from a week of extra "good living." Nearly everyone is bothered with more or less headaches and backaches, tired tongue, poor appetite, dry, hacking cough, heartburn, spots before the eyes, dizziness or vertigo, sleeplessness, lack of energy, loss of flesh or a general weak, tired feeling.

Now is the time when Mi-o-na is needed to repair the ravages and waste the hearty eating of winter has caused in the stomach and digestive system. This is the only known agent that strengthens the stomach and digestive organs, so that they can and will readily digest whatever food is eaten. A Mi-o-na tablet taken before each meal will remove all irritation, inflammation and congestion in the digestive organs, and so strengthen them that they will extract from the food all that goes to make good rich blood, firm muscle and a healthy, buoyant body. This remarkable remedy costs but 50c, and if it does not restore your full vigor, vitality and health, Penny, one of the best known druggists in this section, will refund your money. Unbounded faith like this deserves your confidence.

LAND, STOCK, CROPS, ETC.

Blue Grass seed for sale. Extra quality. A. W. Carpenter, Moreland, Ky.

The census report for cotton grain to January 16 in this county, shows 711,000 bales.

Mr. I. Shelby Taylor has sold to J. S. Luter, of Greely, Ind., the fine three-year-old Jack, Capt. Powell, for $500. Capt. Powell was bred by S. T. Harris' Billy Keesee, dam Mrs. Husley, by St. John.

Cornelia Bros. and J. W. Nash, of Lexington, sold to Vance Nacolas, of Cleveland, for $5,000, the three-year-old brown filly, Sue N., by Moko, dam Grey Dark, by Whitcomb, and she will be prepared and driven by the veteran trainer in her many engagements this season.

COSTLY MILK.—George B. Bourgeois, a New Jersey attorney, in the interest of his one year-old son, paid $200 for two quart bottles of milk and the same amount of cream, or at the rate of $50 a quart bottle. Mr. Bourgeois lives in Ventnor, which was completely cut off from electricity, calling on a milk depot the lawyer found that it would be impossible to deliver milk. He then hired Archie Burrell to get the milk. Snowdrift ten feet high in places blocked Burrell's horse and carriage and at times he was obliged to drive to the beach, and his journey, ordinarily three miles, proved to be three times that distance, and occupied more than four hours. But he reached the depot and delivered the milk. Mr. Bourgeois gave Burrell a check for $200.

Grave Trouble Foreseen.

It needs but little foresight, to tell that when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead, unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young, of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had nervousness of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but I used Electric Bitters, and found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by Penny's Drug Store, Stanford, Ky., and Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard, Ky., at 50c a bottle.

"There is an old Negro down in my town," said John Sharp Williams, the democratic leader of the House, "who did me a service. I wanted to reward him, so I said:

"Uncle, which shall I give you, a ton of coal or a bottle of whiskey?"

"Fon de Lord, Massa John," he replied, "you'll shurely know I lub wood."—Washington Post.

In Remitting For His I. J. Mr. C. D. Hocker Writes Entertainingly.

GUILFORD, Mo., Jan. 30.—Please place my name as far along on your list as the enclosed amount will justify, according to your terms, for I cannot make up my mind to have my old home paper discontinued. I have been a subscriber for so long it would seem as though I had lost a dear friend to go without the paper now. I think I have been a subscriber to the I. J. since 1855. You may say to my friends and relatives in old Lincoln that this leaves me family and my old mail. I have been from your county and state so long my friends are not so numerous as they were once, but I should have a number of relatives there. When I left in 1860, Lincoln county was pretty thoroughly saturated with Hocker blood, and I thought of a very good quality. When I came West I brought a combination of blood. While it was all Kentucky, yet it was of different strains—Hocker and McKinney. I will say that I am well pleased with the results.

We are having and have had three January real old fashioned winter and a large part of the month has been zero weather, once as low as 17 below, but it isn't so cold as that; however, the country is covered over with snow. I would blame our State Legislature for the severe cold, but after a second thought I can't consistently do so, for this reason: They are having it so hot as Jefferson City that I think it would cause the snow to melt, even this far north. I presume you heard that the republicans had an election in Missouri last fall, on or about the 8th of November? Well, they did, all the same, and in the wind-up it was found they had elected a majority of the Legislature in the State—the first time in 30 years. They discovered that the door of the U. S. Senate was open and the big ones made a break to get in, but some of them have been able to get in as yet. It has been so long since a republican has had an opportunity at this door that it seems they all "want in," and like the dog in the manger, "if I can't you shan't" seems to be their motto. They should make much of this opportunity, for if it's very probable they will have such another chance.

Yours Respectfully,

C. D. HOCKER.

CRAB ORCHARD.

Mr. Stark Fish is visiting his mother, Mrs. E. Fish.

The dullness of our little city was relieved a few days by the appearance on Main Street of a handsome, intelligent looking man in his late fifties, the thermometer marking near zero. It was supposed that he was a "jag" getting over a recent "high looseness." Miss Annie Brough returned Saturday from a visit to Mr. L. C. Smith at Broadhead. John Buchanan, of Louisville, spent a few days with the home-folks. Mr. Lewis Bell returned from a visit to his father Monday. Sam King left Sunday for Henderson, where he has a good business position. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis, of Nashville, are guests of the home-folks. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Curtis, near Walnut Flat. Miss Catherine Brough leaves this week for a lengthy visit to Lexington friends. Mr. J. J. Brooks, the well-known druggist, is mingling with old friends here.

THE EDITOR'S CAREER.—The story develops and we look into the credits and behold a male child. After running the gauntlet of measles, mumps and chickenpox, he enters school. At the age of ten he is a red-headed, freckle-faced boy, the terror of the neighborhood. At 12 he is apprentice in a printing office. At 15 he has acquired two cases of long primer and an army press and is the editor of a country newspaper. At 20 he is married. At 30 he is bald-headed, stoop-shouldered and the father of a large family. At 35 he is a corpulent man in a blue coat and as 500 dedicated subscribers slip past his door for the last look, they are heard to say "He was a good man, but he couldn't save his money."

William J. Bryan gave $2,500 toward wiping out the debt of Illinois College, of which he is an alumnus.

NEWS NOTES.

Fifteen buildings at Stanford, Kas., were destroyed by fire. The principal dormitory of Oberlin College was destroyed by fire.

Four business blocks were almost destroyed by fire at Schenectady, N. Y. The safe of the post-office at Ladoga, Ind., was blown and $320 was secured. Free delivery of mail within the city limits of Paris has been inaugurated.

The handsome new Carnegie library was thrown open to the public at Parsonsboro, N. C.

Thomas Berry, a well-known Kentucky horseman, is dead at New Orleans.

The Austrian steamer, Siam, with coal for the Russians, was captured by the Japanese.

One person was killed and several injured in a coasting accident at Bloomington, Ill.

Judge James M. Hobson, father of Capt. Richmond P. Hobson, is dead at Greensboro, N. C.

A deal for a consolidation of all the breweries of Toledo, O., into a $5,000,000 corporation was completed.

The court of appeals affirms the death sentence against Geo. B. Warner for the murder of Patrick Leeds in Louisville.

Capt. Thomas Speed, clerk of the United States court in Louisville, civil war veteran and writer of to-day, is dead after an illness of two years.

A woman in this active and armed with a Winchester, held up the mail-carrier between Booneville and Manchester, Ky., and secured a registered package containing $500.

Orders of arrest, charging contempt of court in leaving witnesses in the Marum suit to leave Winchester, were issued by Judge Benton against the Hargies, French and others.

Eugene B. Hinton, traffic manager of the Tennessee Central railroad, says that what the South needs is the repeal of the law against Chinese immigration.

The natives would be greatly preferable to the Negroes, he thinks.

It is hoped at St. Petersburg that favorable results will follow the audience given by Emperor Nicholas at Tsarskoe Selo to a delegation of workmen.

In addition to personal advice, the royal family has contributed $25,000 for the relief of the families of those killed and wounded in the rioting of Jan. 22.

The manufacturers of St. Petersburg have also made concessions to the strikers. The situation in Poland is still strained, and strikes are reported from Krakow and several other Siberian towns. Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky has resigned the Ministry of the Interior.

The Court of Appeals granted a temporary writ of injunction against the judge of the Fayette circuit court restraining, until further orders, proceedings in that court against the Hargie brothers and Ed Callahan, indicted for the murder of James Cockill.

Final hearing of a motion for permanent writ of prohibition will be had on Friday, Feb. 10, on which day the court will hear arguments on the motion. Warrants against James Hargie, Alexander Hargie, Ed Callahan and B. F. French were issued at Winchester Tuesday, charging them with interfering with witnesses in the Marum damage case. French has been arrested at Winchester.

The record of proceedings in Breckinridge county in the case of the Hargies, which was filed with the appellate court, makes interesting reading.

The affidavit upon which the magistrate's warrant was issued was made by one Henry Freeman, and alleges that affiant saw defendant "in the said court, and story of the court house," at the time of the shooting. This affidavit was made on Dec. 3, 1904, and the defendants were arrested by one Hiram Centers, a deputy sheriff, and released on bond of $2,000. The bond for A. B. Hargie was executed by Ed Callahan; that for James Hargie by Elbert Hargie and Hiram Centers, the arresting officer; that for Elbert W. D. Back, his attorney, and that for Ed Callahan by Elbert Hargie, one of the defendants.

Fraud Exposed.

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to beware of such people, who seek to profit through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease for over 35 years. A sure protection, to you, is our name on the wrapper. Look for it, on all Dr. King's or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E. BUCKLEN & CO., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor, Canada.

It is said that a recent Boyle county grand jury returned 10 indictments against the Standard Oil Co. Can it be possible that these unfriendly indictments of the law wish to still further impoverish John D. Rockefeller, whose dividend only amounted to $5,000,000 the year just past, as compared to $7,000,000 the year preceding?—Advocate.

SOMERSET.

Sleighting is fine and many are enjoying the sport. The "Somerset Idea" tablet is the latest thing in the tablet line.

A cottage of R. H. Bartell on Main street, occupied by a colored family, burned Monday night.

Papers from all over the State are complimenting the "Somerset Idea." Send $50 for five months' subscription.

One of Mr. Converse's children, while sleighing Wednesday evening, ran into a horse and wagon and was severely cut on the head.

Somerset is trying hard to get an Elk lodge. It is being talked up by the leading business men of Somerset.

There are 15 Elks here. One of the most enjoyable dances given in the large (club room) for some time was that of last Friday night. Some 30 couples participated. The Somerset orchestra furnished the music.

The fire department of Somerset is something to be proud of. The fire alarm was given Monday evening and the department arrived just as the house was about to fall in. "Be ready, for you know not the hour or the minute."

Mrs. Dr. J. M. Owens is visiting in Lexington. Leo Collinsworth has returned from a Lexington business college, where he graduated in seven weeks. Where would any other young man have done this? The Misses Kelley, of Richmond, returned home Monday, after a short visit to Miss Agnes Meade. Miss Edna Ramsey returned to Monticello Tuesday, after a visit to Mrs. Ed Morrow.

Mr. S. H. Goodwin entertained a few of his gentlemen friends Tuesday evening at the Newtonian Hotel. Music and songs were the chief amusements of the evening. Mr. Goodwin is one of Somerset's oldest young men, and all pronounced the evening a very enjoyable one. Those present were Norman Waddle, Irvin Thomas, Everett Hump, Dr. M. E. Tate, Robt. Sautley, Cecil Williams, Frank Brinkley, Andrew Waddle and Raymond McCarty.

A Tribute to Mrs. Jas. P. Bailey.

The cold wind of January 14th was not more chilling to our bodies than that which chilled our hearts when the message came to us that Mrs. Clara Bailey had gone out from amongst us to be forever with the Lord, and not until we saw her body lowered to its last resting place could we realize that we should see her no more. It is not our purpose in this short notice to eulogize this splendid woman. Her life as wife, mother and daughter was lived in the fear of the Master, and because it was thus lived, we would point those who sorrow so deeply to the hope of meeting her in the life beyond.

The years bring many changes to us all, and as we go back to other days, memory brings before us a happy home where this charming woman, surrounded by those who loved her, dispensed a gracious hospitality. We remember her kindly deeds and hear the music of her voice. The picture is bright, but it fades, and we sadly realize that the sweet voice is hushed and the old familiar faces are gone. We, too, have the hope of meeting this dear friend, and so we will not say good-bye, but in some brighter clime we will bid her good morning.

M. Hestonville, Jan. 30, 1905.

KINGSVILLE.

Mrs. Green Murphy is ill with grip. Mrs. W. L. McCarty is down with the same trouble. Mrs. Ida Foster and children, of Eobanks, were the guests of relatives here. Mrs. Clara Broyle, of Burnside, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dunn. Miss Teresa Dunn has returned from a visit to her sister at Burnside.

A wreck occurred here Wednesday afternoon, caused by the switch being left open. The local car ran into it, colliding with an engine and several cars, derailing three. One loaded with coal was overturned and all were pretty badly demolished. Nobody was injured except Dan Hester, who was pretty badly shaken up.

Afraid of Strong Medicines.

Many people suffer from rheumatic pains, and prefer to do so rather than take the strong medicines usually given for rheumatism, not knowing that a quick relief from pain may be had simply by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm and without taking any medicine internally. Rev. Amos Parker, of Magnolia, North Carolina, suffered for eight years with a lame hip, due to severe rheumatic pains. He has been permanently cured by the free application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.

The House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce has authorized a favorable report on the Mann bill, so that the Federal Government will take place the work entirely in the hands of the president.

Are You Going to Build This Season?

Have you thought of this? The cost of Chimneys, Grates, Mantels, Hearths? I will put you in a Patrie Furnace, warm your house all over and save fuel. A furnace will save trouble and expenses caused from bursted pipes to amount to something in a few cold winters. Think how clean: no ashes, no coal, no kindling in your rooms. Consult the timer.

PENNY'S DRUG STORE, STANFORD

E. C. WALTON

JOHN BROWN'S body lies mouldering to rot, but his spirit doesn't seem to go marching on in Kansas boots. Although Booker Washington went arm in arm with the governor to address the Legislature a poor white trash of a hotel keeper declined to permit Mr. Roosevelt's associate to place his feet under his mahogany or repose upon his downy couch. This is too utterly too bad and the bronze bust should call a special session of Congress to consider the matter.

Forty years after the war Congress is increasing the list of pensions from 500 to 1,000 every Saturday, which is pension day. Last Saturday 553 bills were passed as fast as the clerk could read them by the title. No one pays attention to them but the member who is interested and they go through without debate or roll call. It is a burning shame, but no member in Congress has the nerve to go against the G. A. R., which continually calls for pensions and still more pensions.

THE W. C. T. U. at Carbondale, Pa., has begun a crusade on the shocking use of such profane expressions as "My Lord," "Good Heavens" and so forth, by women. This is a step in the right direction, but it does not go far enough. It must be made a penal offence, even if Kentucky's "40 per day" law doesn't suffice. There have to be into another extra session. We are tired of having our nerves shocked by such profanity.

MR. NIEDERHUBER, of Missouri, may never be U. S. Senator, and here's hoping he will not be, but he will have the satisfaction of getting his peculiar paternity before the public and of realizing that one can get so near and yet be so far. He hasn't as many votes as he started with, since his methods of conducting the republican campaign in that State have been brought into the line-light.

THE U. S. court has decided that the best friend is an unlawful combination. It is now up to the president to see that criminal proceedings are instituted against the concern which has fattened as long on man's necessity.

CONGRESS has increased the appropriation for free seed distribution $100,000. Evidently the republicans member think they are going to have a hard time for re-election next time.

JOHANN BUCK, the man with 20 wives, has been arrested. We should think he would enjoy a little rest in jail after such experience.

POLITICAL.

The Tennessee Senate passed the Lopez-Rice bill prohibiting betting on race tracks.

Two members of the Tennessee Legislature engaged in a fist fight in the corridor of the capitol in Nashville.

The Tennessee House passed a bill taxing unmarried men, but made it apply only to the home county of the author of the measure.

The temperance people of Indiana won a victory in the Senate by the passage of the Moore bill amending the Nicholson liquor law.

A vote of 47 to 25 the House refused to concur in the Senate amendment to the bill changing the boundary of the Hunt property for a capitol site.

The lower house of the General Assembly adopted a resolution endorsing the position of President Roosevelt the matter of extending the powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The grand jury at Portland, Ore., indicted Senator John D. Mitchell on the charge of bribery. Ten indictments contain six counts.

George C. Brownell was indicted at the same time, charged with subornation of perjury.

The Illinois Legislature has appointed a committee to investigate the "graft" charges made by Representative Comerford in an address to law students at Chicago. Mr. Comerford has been allowed until Monday to prepare his case and save his will be ready on that day to substantiate a part of his charges.

Representative James M. Alverton must be given no small share of the credit for the fact that the House has done its full duty in the Capitol also.

Realizing that the republicans had put the matter up to all democrats either to stand with the majority of their party or block all legislation favoring a new site, Mr. Alverton put aside personal opinions and cast his vote for the site agreed on by a majority of the democrats in the House. His example was followed by five other Representatives who felt as he did, and in consequence, the House stands ready to adjourn, after having done its full duty, within two weeks from the commencement of the session.—Louisville Times Editorial.

PREACHERSVILLE.

Bora, to the wife of Levi Hall, a girl. At the request of friends who wish to know the number of snow this season, we will state that there have been 25 up to and including Feb. 3.

From recent developments it now seems that others beside the man with the two-bushel basket must have had their fortunes told by the mistletoe.

J. M. Cross said to S. G. Anderson a lot of 800-pound fat huffers at 3c; also 200 huffs of fat to Collier & Tatum at 40c. Mr. Terry is here buying timber for staves.

Mrs. Dan Naylor is much improved. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. King are sick with the grip. Mrs. S. D. Carpenter is indisposed. J. L. Anderson is having a tough time with grip.

W. P. White found a pearl in Dix river recently, which he gave to his brother, James White, who refused an offer of $15 for it. Mr. White could have found more pearls if he had had the time to spare.

The lowest thermometer has reached at this place this season was 1 below zero. It is reported that Mr. B. T. Lonsford's thermometer had the bottom knocked out by the mercury dropping so far below zero.

The Misses Carpenter entertained at a dinner Tuesday evening. Mrs. J. B. Hutchins is visiting her sister, Mrs. James Emore, at Jellico. J. B. Hutchins is at Lexington attending a business college. John Anderson and Hayden Naylor, who are running Mr. Geo. Evans' farm, are in receipt of letters from that gentleman, who is spending the winter in Florida, stating that he is enjoying himself and has better health than he has had for some time.

Mrs. Fannie Sutton, one of the oldest and best women of this section, died at her home here Sunday evening, after a protracted illness of grip and its incident to old age. She was the widow of Benjamin Sutton. Her maiden name was Fannie White, being a sister of Rev. W. T. B. White. She was born Jan. 3, 1823, near Fork church, in Garrard, where she was reared and lived until 1879, and since that time had lived in this vicinity. She had been a consistent member of the Baptist church for more than 65 years; was a kind-hearted, home-loving, christian woman and her passing away is deplored by all who knew this most estimable lady. She is survived by six grown children, J. K. Sutton and Misses Fannie and Allie Sutton, of this place, W. T. Sutton, Garrard, Mrs. Pattiell, of Matton, Ill., and Mrs. Mary E. Boner, of Lexington, Ky.

Rev. G. W. Mills is confined to his room from a severe burn on his foot. Charles Conner, of Indianapolis, is visiting relatives in the West End this week.

A congregational meeting of the Presbyterian church is desired for next Sunday to arrange for the year's work. All members and friends are cordially invited.

The Morgan Comedy Co. held the boards at Alcorn's Opera House last Monday night and considering the weather with an eight-inch snow, had a good house.

Hustonville needs water works, a better system of street lighting, better material on the streets and the enforcement of side walk laws. Let the good work begin at once please.

New wash for the college building have arrived and it is to be hoped that the building will be put in a comfortable condition for the school. The brick tona off the top walls during the storm that unroofed it, have been replaced.

J. G. Weatherford & Co. about March 1st, will open a full and complete line of furniture, house furnishings, carpets, carpets, mattings, picture frames, etc. in the beautiful room next door to their store. This line will fill a long felt want in our city and we predict that success will be theirs from the beginning.

The last funeral rites over the remains of Geo. W. Riffe, Sr., were conducted by Rev. Thos. Coleman at the Baptist church here Thursday and was attended by a large concourse of friends and relatives. Mr. Riffe, moved from this locality, where he lived for over 40 years, to Oklahoma last November. He was 75 years of age and a devout member and one of the officers of the Baptist church here. He was a man of the most profound integrity and had the confidence of all who knew him. He leaves a wife and seven grown children who mourn the loss of a kind and indulgent husband and father.

CHURCH MATTERS.

W. R. Moody, son of the great evangelist, makes an appeal for $100,000 to the debate and maintain Northfield school.

James Hall has just closed an 18-day meeting at Rowland, which was the best in years. There were 250 conversions and one sanctification.

Elis. H. C. Garrison closed the third year of his pastorate at Pleasant Grove church last Sunday, and this people hope to have him serve them again.—Marksville cor. Advocate.

The usual services at the Baptist church Sunday morning by the pastor. Subject: "How the Devil goes to Church." In the afternoon at 2 o'clock the second of the series to men will be delivered by Prof. Bosley. Subject: "Words." Every man is invited. Come give encouragement and help in this way. You will get help as well as give help. This is the Miller's work. There will be singing by a male quartet. Pray for us and help us to live and pray for others with us.

POISONS IN FOOD.

Perhaps you don't realize that many people die from the food they eat. Some day you may feel a twinge of dyspepsia that will convince you. FEMALE WEAKNESS

643-2 Congress St. Portland, Maine, Oct. 17, 1902. Dear Sir:—I have used your medicine for several months and I have gained 15 pounds. I suffered for many months with suppressed menstruation which complicated with a bad cold and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed to be beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came to my aid and I feel a change for the better within a week. After several days treatment I manifested without suffering the regular and without pain. Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I feel that all suffering women need it. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, Mrs. J. B. O'Leary, Agent, Stanford, Ky.

Thanks, Brer Campbell, for your reference to that delightful occasion, but you mustn't make fun of our feeble effort in telling about it.

THOSE enterprising McKinney citizens, Messrs. K. L. and Ed J. Tanner, have bought machinery and will soon have a machine mill in operation at their town.

The canning factory building will be used and the machinery ordered of the most modern make. Mr. C. H. Wright, an experienced man in the business, will have charge of the mill. It will be a help to McKinney and we hope a source of revenue to the clever promoters of the enterprise.

WHISKY, wine and "dope" to the extent of almost a wagon load was captured by Chief of Police Logan Wood and Sheriff McDowell, when they arrested Les Gregory and George Hays on the Stanford pike near the city limits, says the Advance.

The two Negroes were on their way from Stanford, where they had secured the lay out of stuff and were evidently feeling good over the prospects of making a big profit on their sales. Gregory got 10 days in jail and fined $75, but Hays was let on the tune of $100 and 30 days. Hays also caught a $50 fine and 30 days in jail for carrying concealed weapons.

MUST PONY UP—Federal Judge Cochran handed down a judgment at Covington in the case of C. L. Williams, receiver of the defunct National Bank of Somerset against the stockholders.

The court holds that each and every stockholder is liable to the amount equal to the stock held and consequently must contribute toward making good the losses sustained by depositors of the bank. This is bad news to those unfortunate Lincoln county people who held stock in the miserably managed concern. They had already lost all they put in and now are commanded to pony up 40 or 50 per cent. more on their holdings.

ABOUT 80 guests responded to the "At Home" invitations of Mrs. W. M. Bright and Miss Florence Myers at their pretty home on Danville street, the afternoon of Jan. 31. This proved to be one of the most delightful of the mid-winter receptions given in honor of Mrs. Wm. Phelps Cobb, who was handsomely gown in cream green and lace over silk, with courage bouquet of ivory roses. The Stanford Orchestra dispensed sweet music and the home, being prettily decorated and brilliantly lighted, made the scene one of cheer and beauty. The hostesses very graciously received their guests, assisted by Mrs. Phelps Cobb and Miss Florence Cobb, of Danville. After a short while spent in pleasant conversation, about 30 at a time were invited into the pretty dining-room, where delicious refreshments were served. Miss Lizzie Bright graciously presided over the frappe bowl of the ball. Mrs. J. B. Foster and Mrs. J. B. Paxton assisted in entertaining the guests.

I. L. INGRAM, grandson of Mr. Isaac Hamilton, was stricken with paralysis at Harrison, Tenn., a few days ago. His home is at Erin, Tenn., to which place he was taken. He is improving somewhat at last account.

THE weather has been and is yet too utterly too hot to talk about. Snow to a depth of five or six inches covers the earth, while the mercury plays around zero each morning and evening and does not leave that mark for between times.

A UNIQUE and pleasing entertainment, a Lilliputian Wedding, will be given soon by the Young Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church. The roles are taken by the little ones, which will insure interest and a crowd.

CARSON—Mrs. George W. Carson, aged about 75, died at her home near Tupperville yesterday of pneumonia and will be buried in the Campbell burying ground this afternoon. She is survived by a husband, who is 84 years old, and eight children. She was a kind, good woman and her death has caused general sorrow among her neighbors and relatives, who loved her very dearly.

BASTIN—Mr. Alex A. Bastin, aged about 70, died at his home near Highland at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon after a long illness of heart trouble. A wife, three sons and two daughters survive. The burial occurred at Mt. Moriah at 3 o'clock yesterday. Mr. Bastin was a kind-hearted, clever man and many friends sorrow at his death. He was a Union soldier and had been a pensioner for years. He had been a member of the Christian church since his youth.

A DANVILLE special says: Mrs. Effie Johnson, who was deserted by her husband, R. M. Johnson, at Hubbs, told a pitiful story as she passed through en route to Chattanooga, where she expects to find employment. Her husband, she claims, disappeared suddenly about six weeks ago, leaving a note tacked to the door reading: "I'm gone." Although the wife has wired all over the country, no trace can be found of the missing husband. Had it not been for the note, the wife would have suspected foul play, as Johnson disappeared apparently without cause. He was manager of the barbers mine located near Hubbs.

En, how will Dooly-only-on do for the new game for that wall, from a musical standpoint?—Somerset Journal.

The name of Sprague's? We'll be changed to it without further discussion—INTERIOR JOURNAL.

From a historical standpoint there should be no objection. Edward Dooly, for whom the addition to Stanford was appropriately named Doolyville) was the biggest free Negro man ever lived in Stanford, and drove more tacks (in shoe soles) than any other citizen of recent times. With these few remarks we close the question.—Somerset Journal.

And for the goodness sake let us close.

Estelle Dyche, aged six, is dead at London. Her father, A. R. Dyche, postmaster of his town, buried a 16-year-old daughter Monday last.

Paul Noble, a farmer, aged 75, slipped on the ice at Richmond and in falling, was killed. His advanced age and the severity of the shock are given as the causes of death.

Rev. Arlene Mays, a divine of the M. E. Church, South, at Middleburg, died of pneumonia and was buried before a jury and declared to be of sound mind and was sent to Lakeland Asylum.

MATRIMONIAL.

J. W. Petrey, aged 22, and Miss Edie Denny, 14, were married at the bride's home yesterday.

John Howell, aged 76, and Mrs. Maria Winston, 72, were joined hand and hand at Vincennes, Ind.

Ira L. Hollar and Miss Bernie Henson, of Moreland, drove down after taking dinner at the Gilcher Hotel were married by Rev. J. W. Edwards, of Parkville, in the parlors of the hotel. The bride and groom were accompanied by Chas. Henson and Miss Maud Henson—Danville News.

One of the prettiest weddings ever witnessed in this section of the county was that of B. F. Brown and Miss Nannie Noaks. The bride is the handsome daughter A. H. Noaks. The wedding was a surprise to their many friends, the bride having returned from West Virginia, where she has been for the past three years. The groom is a handsome man of 32, originally from San Francisco. The wedding took place at the home of Dr. R. C. Pruitt, the ceremony being performed by Rev. David, one of the oldest ministers in our community, he being 82. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party proceeded to the home of the bride where a dainty luncheon was served. The happy pair will soon leave for their home in Laurel county, where they will reside, the groom having lately bought a home in that section. The congratulations of their host of friends attended them. JOSEPH DELANEY.

Sick Headache.

This distressing ailment results from a disordered condition of the stomach. All that is needed to effect a cure is a dose or two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. In fact, the attack may be ward off, or greatly lessened in severity, by taking a dose of these Tablets as soon as the first symptoms of an attack appears. Sold by Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.

Now, as to the latter there has been no allegation of fraud or corruption in his candidacy. The only weakness in his case is his age. But as regard virtues and inviolates everything, it would seem that if there had been fraudulent practices by his adversaries, while votes to his account have no such taint, in the pure interest of honesty and justice, he should be awarded the seat. It is not probable, however, that the partisan majority of the committee will rise to that plane. On the contrary, the line of reasoning by which it is said they will arrive at their conclusion will have the merit of economy. Hunter will get his pay for his service anyway. In fact he has drawn it, doubtless, quite up to date. Edwards and White will be paid for their time and money expended in the contest, and the former will begin drawing his regular salary for the next Congress on the 4th of March. So they can all come home when Congress adjourns and inaugurate the canvass for the 1906 election. Any one who thinks that any decision of the matter by Congress will promote harmony in the district recalls without his host. The commodity is wholly unknown among the republicans of that ball-walk-Courier Journal

The Contest in the Eleventh.

The news from Washington gives ground for belief that Mr. Edwards, member-elect to the next Congress from the 11th district and contestant for Mr. Hunter's seat, does not accept the fact in such a fair way of winning as he was thought to be in not long since. In fact, the current seems to have changed in favor of Hunter. The ground for this change is said to be that upon a full hearing of the testimony as to the methods pursued by both of these distinguished republicans they have been found to have been so similar that for either to charge the other with disreputable methods of securing a nomination or election is too much in the nature of the pot calling the kettle black. Therefore, as a fair divide is no robbery, and as Mr. Hunter will get his pay for one term, it is said that the other will be regarded as enough for Mr. Edwards. This seems a fair divide, but it takes the record of the party of the third part, Mr. Jno. D. White.

Now, as to the latter there has been no allegation of fraud or corruption in his candidacy. The only weakness in his case is his age. But as regard virtues and inviolates everything, it would seem that if there had been fraudulent practices by his adversaries, while votes to his account have no such taint, in the pure interest of honesty and justice, he should be awarded the seat. It is not probable, however, that the partisan majority of the committee will rise to that plane. On the contrary, the line of reasoning by which it is said they will arrive at their conclusion will have the merit of economy. Hunter will get his pay for his service anyway. In fact he has drawn it, doubtless, quite up to date. Edwards and White will be paid for their time and money expended in the contest, and the former will begin drawing his regular salary for the next Congress on the 4th of March. So they can all come home when Congress adjourns and inaugurate the canvass for the 1906 election. Startling But True.

People the world over were horrified on learning of the burning of a Chicago the are in which nearly 600 people lost their lives, yet more than five times this number, or over 3,000 people, died from pneumonia in Chicago during the same year, with scarcely a passing notice. Every one of these cases of pneumonia resulted from a cold and could have been prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. A great many who had every reason to fear pneumonia have ward it off by the prompt use of this remedy. The following is an instance of this sort: "Too much cannot be said in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and especially for colds and influenza. I know that it cures my daughter, Laura, of a severe cold, and I believe saved her life when she was threatened with pneumonia." W. D. Wilcox, Logan, New York. Sold by Lynde Bros, Crab Orchard.

The damage done to crops in the Southern States by cold waves is considered in an interesting article in the current Harper's Weekly by Alexander J. Mitchell, who has charge of the United States Weather Bureau at Jacksonville, Fla. The damage to crops in Florida by the cold wave of 1886, for example, was estimated at $3,000,000. The total value of farm property in Florida in 1886 was $1,900,000. Its value 10 years later was $35,000,000—a reduction, due to the same cause, of over $2,000,000, which means an average per capita deficit of approximately $60.
